SUMMARY

This weekend we heard from Brian McKenney. We looked at an interesting story from Judges 3 and found eight incredible insights. The title of the message was “Enough is Enough”.

(1) God can even use our failures to grow us (v.1-5).

- Can you share an example of how this has been true in your life?

(2) When it comes to sin: what we don't eradicate, we will end up embracing (v.6)

- What in your life needs to be eradicated? How will you go about it?

(3) You will bring tribute. The choice is this: will you worship the One who gives you freedom? Or the things that enslave you (v.12-17)?

- What does it mean to “bring tribute”? How does this play out in your life currently?

(4) When we choose to feed the flesh, we forfeit the greater things God has for us (v.18-19).

- What does it mean to “feed the flesh”.
- How do you choose the things God has over feeding the flesh?

APPLICATION

(5) Your handicap does not stop God's handiwork (v.20-21).

- What is your handicap? How have you seen God use it?

(6) We will never get rid of sin in our lives until we see it for what it is (v.22).

- Is there any sin in your life that God has revealed to you recently that you need to get rid of?

(7) “When the sword goes in, the dirt comes out.” - Jon Courson

- Read Hebrews 4:12 - How might you grow in dedication to God's word this week?

(8) Your people are waiting for you to lead (v.23-30).

- Who is waiting for you to lead?
- What would likely happen if you did?

PRAYER

Pray that God use this passage this week to change us.
